GDPR and Membership Data

The British Rabbit Council will hold your personal data securely and use only to maintain records and communicate effectively with each individual. We undertake never to sell any membership data for marketing or any other purpose.

Your personal data will only be published if there is a necessity to do so as follows:-

Will be published in the Judges Book to enable club secretaries to contact you if you are on any specialist club panels or on the BRC judging panels.

Will be included in the yearbook and on-line if you are a club secretary, to enable members to contact you.

Will be included in the yearbook and on-line if you are a named District Advisor to allow contact to be made directly to you for advice.

Will be included in the yearbook and published on-line if you are a Trustee, a member of the Governing Body or of one of the Committees.

Will be published in the yearbook and on-line if you have chosen to be included in the Breeders directory.

Your contact details may be given to other members in order to contact you for any reason, but not to members of the public unless you are a secretary and they require show entry details in which case a telephone number or email may be given.

Please sign below to confirm that you give consent for your personal details to be published in the yearbook and Judges Book where appropriate and return to the BRC Office or The BRC stand at Peterborough.
